$100,000 TO CHORUS GIRL—YEA, VERILY---STAGE MONEY.

Press Agent in Fortune's Role Is a Trifle Careless About Seeing Mother.

MISS SYBIL CLIFTON, Chorus Girl, Who Is Not Heirress to $100,000, According to Her Mother.

A glowing story comes by telegram from Chicago that Miss Sybil Clifton, one of the flower girls in "The Chaperones" now playing in that city, has just been offered $100,000 worth of T. G. & E. Co. bonds through the death of her mother's brother, Hamilton Hale.

This is a wild story, and it will doubtless serve to increase the village interest in Miss Clifton and "The Chaperones." However, it may be true, and Mrs. John Hale, the mother of the actress, would believe it.

Probably this is because the press agent had not communicated with her in advance of the reporter's visit to her, Mrs. John Hale, who lives in the village of Williamsburg. Her husband is partner in the New York Steamship Company, and she is a widow.

She told an Evening World reporter today that she had no knowledge of the fortune which her brother-in-law had inherited. Neither was Mr. Hale's will known. So there are no grounds for believing the story.

Miss Clifton has no special interest in the money. It is announced today that she has been offered the fortune by the death of an uncle in Budapest, Hungary.

Mrs. Wagoner's lawyer is unable to say how much of the fortune she has inherited. She is said to be a widow, and her husband was a partner in the New York Steamship Company.

Mr. Hall, who is superintendent of the Roberts ship yards, has an income of $10,000 a year, supported by his wife. For his services he receives $100 a month, but he has a wife and children to support.

"YOU MEAT EATERS."

The Baltimore Man Says Things. You meat eaters who are ailing in any sort of way might take a valuable hint from the following: A gentleman in Baltimore writes: "For a long time I steadily ran down because of an intense pain in my side, and also in the pit of my stomach. I was miserable and everything I ate caused distress. I fell away from 185 pounds to 150. Lost my ambition for work, was drowsy all of the time, felt tired in the morning as I did upon going to bed at night."

"I was a steady meat eater three times a day for several years. Somebody told me that if I would change my diet and take Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food at two meals in the day I would improve. I made the experiment and in less than two weeks began to improve very rapidly. My appetite came back, and I slept better than I had for months."

"I used Grape-Nuts both at breakfast and lunch and ate a little meat for dinner, but not much. I discovered that a few teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts would furnish more nourishment than quantities of meat."

"My improvement has continued until now I weigh 195 pounds, which is a gain of about 45 pounds in five months, and I feel in magnificent condition. Please do not publish my name if you use this letter, but I will gladly tell any person of the benefits received if self-addressed, stamped envelope is sent." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
